ADVOCACY AND CODES

BOMA's legislative and regulatory victories have saved our industry billions of dollars. BOMA fights for you at the federal, state and local levels before legislative, regulatory, and codes and standards bodies. Our accomplishments result in direct savings, improved asset values, and economic growth.

- Capital Gains – gained enactment of the Tax Relief Extension Reconciliation Act, extending the tax cut on capital gains and dividends until 2012.
- Key Tax Provision Extensions – won victories on the 15-year depreciation timeline for tenant improvements, the tax deduction for energy efficiency retrofits to new and existing buildings, and fended off a tax increase on Carried Interest.
- TRIA – secured the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act extension until 2014, ensuring the availability of terrorism coverage with a federal government "backstop" for catastrophic losses.
- Codes and Standards – defeated changes for unnecessary fire separation and structural design requirements; defeated unrealistically stringent requirements for all energy efficiency systems and elements; and on annual lease income losses, gained the approval of alternatives to unnecessary and costly evacuation stairways and fire separation requirements.
- ADA Regulations – provided the industry's voice in this updating process and will continue to provide in-depth information and training on the new requirements.

Our accomplishments result in direct savings, improved asset values, and economic growth to your organization.

RESEARCH AND STANDARDS

- BOMA's Experience Exchange Report (EER) is the industry's premier benchmarking tool, allowing you to track office building and income expenses, develop operating strategies, compile budgets, and underwrite and analyze acquisition opportunities.

- BOMA is the only commercial real estate association with representation on all codes and standards bodies. We also support the adoption of the International Codes, the only coordinated and integrated model codes for the built environment.
